- I can make a request.
- I can respond to a request.

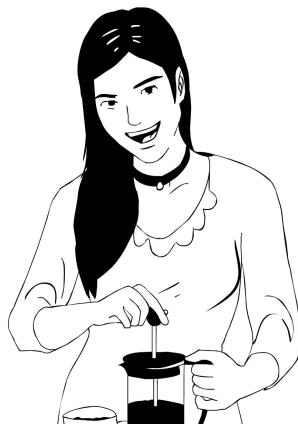

Let's Explore!

Jenny and Linda are at home. Carol and Jack are at work. Why are they all in the kitchen?

* "At home" means in your house.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Conversation 1

Jenny: Linda, could you do me a favor? Could you hand me those tomatoes?
Linda: Sure, I'm happy to help you.
Jenny: Thanks. There are some vegetables over there. Wash them, chop them, and add them to the soup.
Linda: How many vegetables?
Jenny: All of them.

Conversation 2

Jack: Carol, is there any coffee?
Carol: No, there isn't.
Jack: Make some coffee for the meeting, please.
Carol: How much coffee do you need?
Jack: I need a lot of coffee. Two or three pots. Hand me the brownies too, please.
Carol: These? Here you go.

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Expressions with Count and Non-Count Nouns

You can use quantifiers with count and non-count nouns.

With Non-count Nouns (an amount)	Examples	With Count Nouns (a number)	Examples
----	There is soup on the table.	A / an	I have a book. She has an apple.
some any a lot of how much ... ?	There is some water. Is there any water? There is a lot of coffee. How much coffee is there?	some any a lot of how many ... ?	Have some apples. Are there any books? There are a lot of books. How many books are there?

The Imperative

You use the Imperative to give instructions.

The Imperative only has one form. You do not use a subject.

Examples:

- Boil some water.
- Cut the vegetables.
- Wash the spinach.
