Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Do you eat street food? Let's see what's on the menu today!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- What kind of food do you like to buy on the street?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the letters U, V, W, X, Y and Z.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.
- I can use word stress.

Let's Explore!

Fresh fruit, sandwiches, burgers, tacos ... delicious! Let's get some street food, like stir-fry*.

* "Street food" is food sold by vendors on a street or from a van.

 "Stir-fry" is a dish made of meat and/or vegetables cooked in oil.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

David: Hi, Paula. Where can we go for lunch? Any ideas?
Paula: Let's get some street food. Maybe from the food van?
David: Yes, good idea. I like the variety of food they have.
Paula: They have a lot of fresh fruit, some pizza.
David: Is there any vegetable stir-fry?
Paula: Yes, there is.
David: Sounds great!
Paula: Plus a walk at lunchtime helps me relax.
David: Yes, work can be stressful.
Paula: Pass me your umbrella. The weather is terrible today!
David: No problem!
