Let's Start!

Oh no! I need help!
How do you ask for help? Let's find out!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- When do you ask for help?
- Who do you ask?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask for help.
- I can offer to help.
- I can ask or give permission using can.

Let's Explore!

Read the e-mails between Susan and her boss. How does he ask her to help? Can she do it?

* You use "between" for e-mails that go from one person to another person.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Susan,
Could you do me a favor? The directors from Seattle arrive today. Could you go to the airport to welcome them? You can use the company car.
Could someone order lunch for the boardroom? Please get a lot of sandwiches. Get some cookies, but not many. Thank you.
J Miller

Mr. Miller,
I am happy to go to the airport. Tom can order sandwiches and cookies. He can take them to the boardroom. His e-mail is tom@acmail.com. I can copy him.
Susan

Susan,
Great. Thank you for your help, Susan.
J Miller

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Asking for and Offering Help With Can and Could

When you want to ask for help, use the phrases:

Can you + action ... ? or Could you + action ... ?

When you want to offer help, use the phrase: I can + action ...

Examples:

- Can you get lunch today?

Could you do me a favor?

- I can help you.

I can order lunch.

Can for Permission

To ask for or give permission, you use the modal verb can.

Ask or Give Permission	Respond
Can I use this book?	Yes, you can.
You can use the company car.	Thank you.
